FAMILY PROMISE OF WASHINGTON COUNTY UPDATE

New Executive Director Announcement

The Board of Directors of Family Promise Washington County is pleased to announce Lori Prescott as the new Executive Director. Lori has served on the Board of Directors for nearly 4 years, serving most recently as Board President. She has been a dedicated leader for the Board. She is excited to begin her new journey. She shares a passion and dedication for the mission of Family Promise Washington County, serving the homeless needs of the families and singles in our community.

The Board of Directors and the Staff welcome her and look forward to the continued success of Family Promise Washington County.

Family Promise of Washington County is a 501(c)3 that rebuilds lives with compassion by providing resources and services that prevent and end homelessness for individuals and families in Washington County.
